To Do at SF State:

Enough total units to reach 120 minimum for graduation; 40 units minimum at the upper division level; to include the following:

University wide requirements: 9-18 units

- ENG 214 or equivalent A4 course (3 units) if not taken before transfer
- American Institutions (6 units): US History, US Government, CA State and Local Government requirements. If not completed before transfer, recommended courses also satisfy specific major requirements. See grid above.
- University Graduation Writing Assessment Requirement/GVAR (3 units): ETHS 300 GW
- Upper division GE: Take 3 units to satisfy UD (B). Courses approved for UD (C) and UD (D) satisfy major requirements. See grid above.
- Students entering this major with the AA-T in Spanish are not required to fulfill SF State Studies requirements.
- Fulfillment of Complementary Studies is required; consult with a department advisor on how transfer units and/or SF State units can best be applied to this requirement in order to ensure degree completion within 60 units.

Latina/Latino Studies major: 36-39 units [Consult with dept. advisor about applying up to 3 transfer units to the major.]

- Core (12 units)
- Arts and Humanities (3 units): Select courses in consultation with department advisor
- History (3 units): Select courses in consultation with department advisor
- Behavioral and Social Sciences (6 units): Select courses in consultation with department advisor
- Electives (12-15 units): as stated above, consult with dept. advisor about applying up to 3 transfer units to the major.

University electives: 6 or more units depending on the number of units transferred, course choices made at the community college, and how transferred units are applied to the requirements above.

This roadmap is a sample pathway. Check with a major advisor regarding the most appropriate course sequence for you.
