

San Francisco State University
GWAR Mentoring Program

Application for Mentor/Mentee Position in Spring 2017

Name _____ Email _____

Department/College _____ Faculty rank _____

GWAR courses you have taught _____ of semesters teaching GWAR _____ # of semesters teaching at SF State _____

Will you be teaching a GWAR course in SP 17? No___ Not sure___ Yes___ Which one? _____

If you would prefer your mentor or mentee to be from a particular college or discipline please note here. (We will do our best to meet these requests.)

Describe any other experience or training you have in teaching writing:

Write a short paragraph (~250 words or less) explaining why you would like to participate in the GWAR Mentoring Program. Include a response to one of the following questions. Mentor position applicants: What strategies will you employ to prepare your mentee to effectively design and teach a GWAR course? Mentee position applicants: What kinds of support would most benefit you?

Mentor position applicants: please attach relevant materials from a GWAR course you have taught (syllabus, writing prompt, etc.).