Findings of the Interim Report Committee Panel:

Commendations	The panel commends San Francisco State University for: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The significant expansion of assessment activity which goes beyond just having learning outcomes to setting outcome goals and to making strong connections between the curriculum and assessment which will be further enhanced by the planned hiring of a Faculty Director of Assessment;</li> <li>2. The strong focus on institutional research which drives the standards of success for a well-developed program review process emphasizing the centrality of assessment;</li> <li>3. Significant progress in following through on development of a strategic plan which is being executed by a dedicated and well-coordinated team; and</li> <li>4. The student success plan which is well conceived and aligned with the strategic plan making good usage of the institutional research team to understand factors that impact all factors of student success, including retention and curricular planning.</li> </ol>
Recommendations	The panel recommends that San Francisco State University complete and implement the academic master plan which grows out of the broad values-centered approach of the strategic plan. Furthermore, that an outcomes assessment report be developed for the overall strategic plan focused on results in addition to those already being planned for the student success and newly developed academic master plans.
